

Useful TPRS and Comprehensible Input links

Youtube channel:

- TPRS Storytelling - Channel run by Adriana Ramirez, an excellent Spanish teacher in the US who posts lots of videos of her teaching with TPRS and Comprehensible Input (CI).
- Alice Ayele - Teaches French with CI and 'story listening'. Very cool to see slow, comprehensible input, speech in action.

Websites, resources and readers:

- TPRS Books - Founder, Blaine Ray's, website with useful 'free resources' section and lots of readers and graded novels
- Fluency Matters - lots of graded novels available

Instructional books:

- "The Green Book" - the original instructional manual, goes into lots of detail. The most recent is the 7th edition, so look for that one.
- TPRS instructional manual - a more recent book by Lichtman

Facebook groups:

- CI Teaching - hugely active group with thousands of teachers from around the world
- TPRS Witch - Europe based group, run by Judith Dubois who organises the Agen Workshop (below)
- CI & TPRS in Europe - small but growing group of TPRS & CI teachers in Europe

TPRS and CI Conference in Europe:

- The Agen Workshop - Excellent week full of TPRS and CI strategies with amazing presenters. In the morning you can go along and observe some incredible teachers in action, teaching lots of different languages. In the afternoon there are a variety of 1 hour sessions you can sign up to. Evenings are spent eating great French food and sampling the wine! Highly recommend it!

Get in touch:

mail: liam.printer@gmail.com

web: www.liamprinter.com

tweet: @liamprinter